Help us help an outstanding organization meet its matching grant

Let's help the Friends Committee on National Legislation

Please help us help FCNL meet its goal--donate today!.

In late October, representatives from the Friends Committee on National Legislation (FCNL)- largest team of registered peace lobbyists in Washington, DC-visited St. Louis to share ideas and strategies regarding the looming sequestration legislation and the ramifications if Congress allows the country to fall off the "fiscal cliff." While in our city, a local donor offered a generous matching grant offer to FCNL. When you donate to the FCNL Education Fund between now and December 30, your gift will be matched, dollar for dollar, up to $1,500.

FNCL plays a critical advocacy and networking roll around the country, helping to advance peace and justice with members of Congress. With this matching grant challenge, we have a special opportunity to support the agencies work with us even more on the issues that matter to you.

There are many reasons to donate to support this work. Here are a few of mine:

Together, we can make change happen

This year, FCNL was a driving force behind significant legislative victories for peace and justice - sometimes because of years of work to build the right coalitions and relationships with members of Congress. There are new challenges ahead, and the work we do together is needed now more than ever. You can rely on our expert lobbyists to tell you when your action matters most and to lobby on your behalf on Capitol Hill.

We have 14 registered lobbyists on our staff, the most of any peace group in Washington. FCNL lobbyists are on Capitol Hill every day, meeting with members of Congress and their staff, going to hearings and developing strategies to move on key issues. We share this knowledge, letting you know what your members of Congress can do today to advance peace and justice. You get information to communicate effectively with your members of Congress.

You can influence members of Congress of every political persuasion. Our lobbying approach starts with listening and proceeds to a respectful dialogue with members of Congress and their staff. Congressional offices receive hundreds or even thousands of letters and emails every day. We provide you with tools and advice so your message can stand out from the rest.
